

A CASE STUDY

Finding an Expert Witness to Testify on Prescription Drug Effectiveness

A Client Needed a Qualified Expert Within a Week

CHALLENGE

A law firm sought an expert witness with experience in the efficacy of prescription drugs over time. The challenge was finding an expert with the relevant expertise who was also available to testify during a live trial in Texas within three days.

THE GLG APPROACH

The GLG Law team confirmed that the expert witness needed a background in the Food and Drug Administration and could opine on the life span of a prescription drug and how potency is affected over time.

Using the unrivaled network of approximately 1 million subject-matter experts, GLG sent candidate profiles to the client and set up complimentary screening calls the same day.

OUTCOME

The client selected a Texas-based former pharmacy director at a hospital to serve as the expert witness. We succeeded in placing the individual two days before the live trial, giving the client enough time to bring the expert up to speed.
