

A CASE STUDY

Finding a Banking and Trading Systems Expert Witness for a Foreign Market

A Law Firm Client Needed a Qualified Expert to Perform Significant Work within a Week

CHALLENGE

A law firm was seeking an expert witness with experience in banking and trading systems specific to dividend arbitrage and the London markets. The expert also had to have the ability to complete work quickly and in coordination with the client's colleagues in Denmark.

THE GLG APPROACH

The GLG Law team worked fast, knowing from the client that a lengthy and complex screening process would be required. Between GLG's network of approximately 1 million subject matter experts and custom recruiting, GLG identified and delivered three qualified candidates within 48 hours.

A series of complimentary screening calls were set up between the expert witness candidates and the attorney from the law firm, and the attorney's colleagues in Europe for the following week.

OUTCOME

The client selected and retained a New York-based financial services professional with more than 10 years of experience as an executive at a global investment bank as its expert witness.
